

THIRD SESSION: SOCIAL MEDIA AND HATE CRIME

10 JUNE 2021

4:00-5:30 PM (CET)

45 MIN PRESENTATION | 30 MIN DISCUSSANT | 15 MIN OPEN DISCUSSION

SPEAKER

CARLO SCHWARZ
(BOCCONI UNIVERSITY)

Social media and violence may be intertwined in various ways. In this third event, our speakers explore the potential effects of Donald Trump tweets on hate crimes in the US. Drawing on insights from policy and research, we will discuss the role of social media, governments, and potential policies to reduce violence.

DISCUSSANTS

ADAM COOPER
(HUMANITARIAN DIALOGUE)

MARINA PETROVA
(BOCCONI UNIVERSITY)

MILENA DJOURELOVA
(UNIVERSITAT POMPEU FABRA)

ORGANIZERS:

MASSIMO MORELLI
(BOCCONI UNIVERSITY)
PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE AND ECONOMICS

DOMINIC ROHNER
(UNIVERSITY OF LAUSANNE)
PROFESSOR OF ECONOMICS

QUENTIN GALLEA
(UNIVERSITY OF ZURICH)
POST-DOC RESEARCHER IN POLITICAL ECONOMY

Bocconi

Unil
UNIL | Université de Lausanne

University of Zurich^{UZH}

CEPR RESEARCH
& POLICY
NETWORKS PREVENTING CONFLICT

European Research Council

E4S
Enterprise for Society

Università
Bocconi
BAFFI CAREFIN
Centre for Applied Research on International Markets, Banking,
Finance and Regulation

